Welcome

RB Sellars is a proudly Australian-owned brand built on family values, authenticity, and a deep connection to the land.

Since 1996, RB Sellars has outfitted rural Australians with durable, functional apparel inspired by the Australian landscape and those who work it.

What began as a single hard-wearing workshirt has grown into an iconic workwear range, now including apparel for men and women across workwear, casual wear, and everyday country style — with the Burton Workshirt becoming a recognised Australian staple.

Through DKM Blue, businesses can access RB Sellars apparel as part of a tailored co-branding and uniform solution.

We help bring your brand to life by selecting the right garments, applying your branding professionally, and managing the process end-to-end — whether for team uniforms, corporate wear, or premium branded apparel.

Burton Workshirt

RB Sellars journey began twenty-seven years ago with a vision of creating a hard-wearing workshirt, that captured the spirit of the country. Since then it has fast taken hold as the Australian rural uniform, and evolved to a workshirt range that celebrates the needs of the whole family.
