

JOH841 JOHN DEERE ROCKLEY JACKET BY R. M. WILLIAMS

Engineered for demanding outdoor conditions, the John Deere Rockley Jacket by R.M. Williams delivers dependable protection, versatility and a refined workwear aesthetic. Designed as a high-performance outer layer, it combines waterproof construction with adaptable layering, making it suitable for dealership environments, field work and changing seasonal conditions.

Constructed from a durable polyester-nylon blend, the jacket features fully seam-sealed waterproof protection to shield against wind and rain. A removable soft-shell inner allows the jacket to be worn across multiple seasons, while the detachable hood provides additional coverage when required. Functional details such as a storm flap over the centre front zip, secure internal and external chest pockets, and a structured silhouette ensure practicality without compromising a clean professional appearance.

Blending R.M. Williams heritage styling with John Deere branding, the Rockley Jacket is a premium uniform outerwear option for teams requiring durable protection and versatility across diverse working environments.
