

JOH847 JOHN DEERE HEAVY DUTY CANVAS JACKET

Built for demanding work environments, the John Deere Canvas Heavy Jacket combines durability, warmth and functional design for everyday wear. Constructed from heavy weight cotton duck canvas, this jacket is designed to withstand tough conditions while maintaining comfort throughout the workday. Suitable for dealership, yard and field environments, it offers dependable protection in cooler weather.

The 13.8 oz cotton duck canvas outer shell delivers strength and resilience, while the blanket-lined body and recycled polyester padded sleeve lining provide insulation and comfort without restricting movement. A YKK centre front zip ensures secure closure, complemented by adjustable cuffs and hem for a customised fit. Multiple pockets, including patch pockets, side pockets and an internal pocket, provide practical storage for everyday essentials.

With its structured construction and hard-wearing materials, the John Deere Canvas Heavy Jacket is a reliable outerwear option for teams requiring consistent, durable apparel across a variety of working environments.
