

JOH917 JOHN DEERE STRETCH WATERPROOF JACKET

Lightweight Protection. Built to Move.

A modern workwear solution designed for teams who need weather protection without the bulk, this stretch waterproof jacket delivers performance across dealership, field, and on-site environments.

Constructed from lightweight high-stretch fabric, it provides full waterproof protection while maintaining breathability—keeping your team dry, comfortable, and mobile throughout the day. The clean, streamlined design ensures a professional look across both operational and customer-facing roles.

This is a smart alternative to traditional heavy jackets—lighter, more flexible, and built for movement.
