

JOH954 JOHN DEERE WANGARATTA VEST BY RB SELLARS

Built for everyday dealership, yard and field use, the John Deere Wangaratta Vest delivers reliable warmth, durability and a clean, professional appearance. Designed as a practical mid-layer, it provides insulation without restricting movement, making it ideal for cooler conditions across service, sales and on-site roles.

Constructed with a durable cotton-rich outer shell, the vest balances strength and comfort for daily wear. A warm padded checked lining offers insulation, while the full zip front with storm flap and stud closure helps protect against wind and cold. Functional detailing, including multiple utility pockets and an adjustable back fit, ensures the vest performs throughout the workday.

With its structured silhouette and hard-wearing build, the John Deere Wangaratta Vest is a dependable uniform layer for teams requiring consistent, practical outerwear across dealership and field environments.
